

Your guide to Student Finance England

Undergraduate 2025/26 •

A lifetime of benefits

If you're thinking about applying to university and are wondering how you'll afford it, use this guide to help you understand the financial support available.

The student loan system is there to support your journey through University. All UK students are able to apply for a tuition fee loan and a maintenance loan to help with living costs. You will start to repay these loans when you start earning above a certain amount.

What do I have to pay for?

As a student there are two main costs you will have while studying:

1. Tuition fees
2. Living costs, such as housing, food etc.

Tuition fees

The tuition fee for UK students on a full-time degree will be £9,535 in 2025/26.

Sandwich Placement full year - £1,905 - undertaking a sandwich work placement (paid and non-paid) year where the periods of full-time study are in aggregate less than 10 weeks - 20% of the full time fee.

The Accelerated degree tuition fee is £11,440 for 2025/26 (for example, our two year BA Accelerated Education degree).

Student Finance England students may apply for a Tuition Fee Loan for this amount if on an accelerated course but please note the maximum loan for Student Finance Wales is £9,535.

Government loans

Tuition fee loan

You can apply to Student Finance England via their website.

If you're studying an undergraduate diploma and are aged 19 or over then you may be eligible for an Advanced Learner Loan.

UK students (starting in 2025/26) can apply for a loan to cover all tuition fees for a degree:

- You won't have to pay for any of your tuition in advance
- The tuition fee loan is paid direct to Bath Spa University
- The tuition fee loan is not means tested on household income.

Maintenance loan

You can apply for a loan to help with your living costs and other expenses.

The amount of the loan will depend on your household income and other circumstances; use the Student Finance calculator to find out more.

The maintenance loan will be paid direct into your bank account each term.

If your course lasts longer than 30 weeks and three days in an academic year (for example, the Accelerated degree) you might be able to get a Long Courses Loan to help towards living costs. The Long Courses Loan is part of the Maintenance Loan and to be eligible, you must be able to get the part of the Maintenance Loan that depends on your household income.

Student Finance will assess whether you can get the Long Courses Loan when you apply for your main student finance.

This table shows the 2025/26 loan amounts for Student Finance England if you're studying outside of London, living away from home and not in the final year. Living at home and final year loan amounts are less and students from Wales, Northern Ireland and Scotland have different loan amounts.

Students with dependents

If you have dependants, you may be eligible for extra non-repayable support. To find out if you are, please contact Student Finance.

The maximum adult dependants' grant will be increased to £3,545 for 2025/26.

The maximum childcare grant payable in 2025/26, which covers 85% of actual childcare costs up to a specified limit, will be increased to £199.62 per week for one child only and £342.24 per week for two or more children.

Depending on your household income, in the 2025 to 2026 academic year you could get a parents learning allowance of between £50 and £2,024 a year.

Students with disabilities

Disabled Students' Allowances (DSAs) are extra help from Student Finance for eligible students who have a disability, a mental health or medical condition, Asperger Syndrome or a specific learning difficulty like dyslexia or dyspraxia.

They are non-means tested allowances for eligible UK students, which pay for extra costs incurred as a result of a disability.

Part-time

If you're a part-time student studying at least 25% of a full-time course, you'll be eligible for a tuition fee loan, payable on a pro-rata basis. For part-time students there's also a maintenance loan (prorata based on a maximum loan for living costs for 2025/26 of £10,544).

Please note your funding arrangements may be different if you've previously studied (but not completed) a degree.

A UK student who already has a higher education qualification may not be entitled to funding for a second degree; please contact us for more information about your funding entitlement if this is the case.

Repaying your loans

- You'll only start repaying the loan once you've graduated and are earning over £25,000 (2025/26).
- The interest rate is variable and based on the RPI (retail price index) and only charged on the amount of loan that has been released.
- Loans are written off after 40 years and it is expected most students will not repay all of the amount they've borrowed.
- Only 9% of your income above £25,000 (2025/26) is taken for repayments.

This table shows some examples of repayments:

Your annual income (before tax)	How much you repay (per month)
£25,000 and below	£0
£26,000	£7
£35,000	£75
£40,000	£112

Your student loan will not go on credit files, which is the list of money you've borrowed.

For more information on repayments and interest rates, please visit the Student Loan Repayment website.

Living costs

If you're living away from home, the biggest expense will be accommodation costs. Please see our website for up to date prices.

Accommodation is usually paid at the start of each of the three terms (which corresponds to your student maintenance loan payments) by bank standing order.

We ask for £250 pre-payment of licence fee within 14 days of signing the licence. This amount is part of the total rent and not extra.

You'll also need to consider course-specific costs like books, stationery and printing. For some courses, you may need to pay for field trips, art materials and specialist equipment. Some courses have to pay a Study Visit contribution fee subsidised by the University.

After accommodation, the next largest cost is your day-to-day living expenses such as groceries and going out.

Though the amount varies based on the individual, a single student living away from home during term time will usually need at least £1,104 a month (source: National Student Money Survey - Save the Student 2025).

Of course, if you live at home while studying, your costs will be lower.

You won't be able to plan for all expenses, so try to allow for unexpected costs, such as an extra journey home, or a broken laptop/mobile phone. Consider budgeting for occasional expenses such as birthday cards/presents, Christmas and holidays.

Other expenses

Students are not automatically entitled to claim for full healthcare costs (prescriptions, dental treatments, eye tests and glasses) but you can complete a HC1 form to see if you are entitled to help based on low income.

A prescription in England currently costs £9.90 per item but if you need regular prescriptions, it may be cheaper to buy a pre-payment certificate (available online for three or 12 months). Eye tests cost between £25-£40 and a basic NHS dental checkup costs £26.80.

Students bringing their own television or if watching BBC programmes on iPlayer or any live TV through apps, will need to purchase a TV Licence. The cost of a TV Licence is £174.50 per year.

You may find that your parents' household insurance already covers some items but you should consider arranging cover before leaving home, to start from the date you move in. You can use a price comparison website to find the cheapest cover.

Full time students don't have to pay Council Tax and you can opt to share your details with Bath and North East Somerset Council (B&NES) when completing your online registration.

If you opted not to share but need to confirm your student registration to B&NES or live outside B&NES and need a Council Tax letter, you can contact the Student Information Team via MyServices: Student Information and Support.

Other ways of saving money

Students are often entitled to discounts, for example on local bus travel. If you'll be using the train to visit home, the Young Persons Railcard will give you savings on some fares.

Student discount sites like Student Beans, My Uni Days, Save the Student and Student Money Saver promote deals and discounts.

Finally, TOTUM will give you over 200 discounts in the UK. More information is available online.
